IN THE HIGHER COURTS

QUESTION OF DOCTORS' SERVICES TO PLANTATION LABORERS.

Dismissal of a Libel Suit—Exception to Circuit Court Decision—Bankruptcy.

Tharston & Stanley have filed exceptions of defendant to the decision in J. A. Magoon vs. S. Ahmi.

In the libel case of J. E. Gomes vs. Hawaiian Gazette Company, called before Judge Perry this morning, the plaintiff made no appearance. W. R. Castle for the defendant moved that the cause be dismissed with right of reinstatement on cause shown, and that plaintiff be ordered to pay $32 witnesses' fees and $3 attorney's fee for attendance. Granted. The suit is several years old, and was brought on account of a news item in the Advertiser about an opium seizure.

Judge Perry today adjudged W. S. Bartlett bankrupt on his own petition, granting a reservation of household necessities not to exceed $300 value. Liabilities $1000, assets nominal. C. Creighton for petitioner. Proof of claims will be on the 31st inst.

W. S. Edings, attorney, has filed an affidavit that he mailed summons, etc., in James J. Byrne vs. John Allen and others, to A. Feek, Seattle, Washington, U.S.A.

Summons has been served on J. B. Atherton, as agent of the Paia Plantation Company, for a suit to be prosecuted, at the May term, against that corporation by Dr. J. H. Raymond. The plaintiff claims $250 for services rendered as a physician and surgeon to a Japanese laborer, at defendant's special instance and request, at Wailuku, Maui, last October.

Judge Perry has signed an order directing the trustees to pay costs of court and counsel fees, in their bill in equity for instructions. The costs amount to $23.75, and counsel fees $500 to Kinney & Ballou, attorneys for Mrs. C. L. Carter, and $500 to A. S. Hartwell, attorney for the minor children of C. L. Carter, deceased. These sums are to be paid out of the one sixth interest of the late C. L. Carter, which the trustees state to be $42,711.91.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.

Old Native Fisherman Rescued by the Kaala.

While the steamer Kaala was booming along under full steam this forenoon, a strange-looking object was sighted in the water just off the mouth of the harbor. As the steamer passed by, the strange object threw up a pair of arms. Captain Mosher ordered a boat lowered, and in five minutes the boat was alongside with an exhausted old man lying in the bottom. The boat was not hoisted aboard, but was towed into port behind the steamer.

The man was a fisherman named Kailimai, about 70 years of age. He was out fishing in his canoe, when a tremendous wave swamped the canoe and washed him into the sea. When picked up, the old fellow was clinging to a big calabash to help keep him afloat, but could not have held on much longer, his legs having become cramped. His clothing consisted of a shirt and coat and a big hat. The canoe was about 150 yards away from him.

Unable to find anything of a local nature to work on, the rumor flew got up a story last night to the effect that the Rio Janeiro passengers had brought word that hostilities had already broken out between England and Russia over the Greek question. Of course there was nothing in the report.

ITEMS FROM THE ORIENT

HITS OF NEWS FROM CHINESE AND JAPANESE PAPERS.

Findings of the Bodies of the Captain and Boat's Crew of the British Cruiser Narcissus.

The Kaiser, German flagship, left Hongkong for Amoy on the 22d ult.

The Narcissus, British man-of-war, left Nagasaki on February 23 for Chefoo.

A big fire took place in Kiangse on the 15th ult., and between 30 and 40 houses were destroyed.

The amount collected in Hongkong for the Indian Famine Relief Fund on February 22, was $43,210.

Two Japanese teachers have just been engaged to teach their language to students of the Tungwen College, Canton.

Eighty nine Japanese laborers returned to their native land from the French colony of New Caledonia by the Tokio-maru. They were absent 5 years and brought back as the fruits of their labors an average of $1000 each.

Now, nearly half a year after the tragedy of their death, it is learned that the bodies of Captain Laing and the others of his boat's crew who were drowned from the British cruiser Narcissus near Groomvitcha Bay, in September, were shortly afterward found thrown up by the waves and were buried by some Japanese sailors. The report states: "That it having been discovered that a Japanese sailor and four others arrived at a place 7 1/2 miles south of Groomvitcha Bay on September 30 last, they found some corpses washed up by the sea and in the pockets of the outer garment of one of them, a gold watch, rings and some other jewelry. They hauled the bodies up and covered them up. On their return to Japan they sold the watch, rings, etc., to a dealer, for which they were arrested and put in prison. The jewelry," concludes the report, "has been altered (smelted down) and the watch case taken off. The remainder of the watch and rings have been sent to the Narcissus to be sent home."—Rising Sun.

And Still Another.

On the 8th page of the BULLETIN appears an advertisement today that explains itself—a genuine closing out sale to begin on April 1 will take place at the Temple of Fashion. Mr. Silva intends to close out his entire stock and retire from business. The death of a grandparent in Portugal compels Mr. Silva to return to his old home. The Temple of Fashion will be closed March 29, 30 and 31, in order to allow Mr. Silva and his increased staff of clerks a chance to remark his entire stock of forty odd thousand dollars in dry goods. Every piece of goods in the establishment will be put down to 25 percent below the actual cost price, and that this is a bona fide offer you are requested to get prices from other stores and compare them with the plain figures you find marked on every piece of goods in the Temple of Fashion. And recollect this sale does not open till April 1, 1897.

Kroeger Pianos, sweetest in tone, Jas. W. Bergstrom, sole agent, cash or installments. Warehouses at G. West's, Masonic Temple. Office at Thrum's Book Store. Tuning and repairing. Telephone 347.

ITEMS FROM HILO.

The Government Aiding in Town Improvement.

Charles H. Fairer will have charge of Theo. H. Davies & Co.'s store at Hilo.

Another big wholesale dry goods firm of Honolulu will start a branch house at Hilo.

The Government is advertising a collection of old shanties on Bridge street, Hilo, for sale. They are a frightful eyesore.

Samuel Parker is preparing a tract of 5000 acres of land for subdivision.

Applications for lots of land in the new Kaiwika district—the opening of which was announced in the BULLETIN lately—have been coming in lively, the Tribune says.

A. B. Loebenstein, land agent, has returned to Hilo after surveying a great deal of land for settlement in Kona, Kohala and Waimea districts. He is enthusiastic over the quality of soil, the abundance of game, etc., in the regions gone over.

The Government has notified proprietors along Waiannuene street to move their buildings off the line of projected widening of that thoroughfare by the end of April.

The plans for the business building of the Hilo Mercantile Company show an elegant structure, 40 ft. by 80 ft., two stories, plate glass front, electric elevator, etc.

L. T. Grant is president and W. H. Smith secretary of the Hilo Whist Club.

At Almost Nothing.

Is what E. W. Jordan says when you inquire the prices of corsets and ladies' shirt-waists. Thompson's glove fitting corsets that formerly sold at $4.00 are going at 50c the pair and the celebrated P. D. goods are reduced from $3.50 to $1.50 each. Shirt-waists? Well, I should say so! I am selling them this week cheaper than you can get the sewing done for. Anywhere from 40c is the price, but, to return to corsets, if you want a good quality corset at a cheap figure just come up to the store and look at the stock that is going at 25c each.

New Pilot Boat.

W. Ingate Balls is building a whaleboat for the Honolulu pilots at his workshop in Hotel street. It is 36 ft. 6 in. long and 6 ft. 6 in. broad in the middle. The boat is being made particularly strong, the ribs being placed near together. Its seams are battened on the inside. Five or six oars will put it swiftly through the water, as the model is a fine one. There is also to be capacity for carrying a great spread of sail when occasion offers. The body of the boat is of spruce. It will be a good and strong, tight and speedy pilot boat.

The Carter Monument Fund.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In common with many others of the Citizens' Guard I subscribed $10 to the fund which was proposed to be raised for the erection of a monument to the memory of Chas. L. Carter. I would like to know what progress is being made toward the purchase of a monument or whether the movement will result in a fiasco similar to that of the Kalakaua Monument Association. I paid the money to Mr. Lightfoot. CITIZENS' GUARD.

The Pali Road.

Minister King said this morning that, as soon as Surveyor Bruner gets through setting the necessary stakes on the line of the new Pali road, he will ask for tenders for doing the work. It is proposed to let out the job in two sections if it can be arranged that one contractor will not interfere or get in the way of the other.

HIS MAJESTY OF SIAM TO BE WEDDED TONIGHT

MAY PAY US A VISIT IN A FEW MONTHS.

Chance for Minister Cooper to Utilize His Entertainment Appropriation—Going to the Jubilee.

Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper may yet have a chance to spend some of that $3000 voted him by the last Legislature for the purpose of entertaining visiting potentates and princelings. It was expected that some of it would go toward the entertainment of Li Hung Chang, but he passed by without knowing what the Paradise of the Pacific had in store for him, and Honolulu people lost a chance of seeing China's grand old man.

Now it is announced that majesty itself may pay Honolulu a visit of a few hours sometime next autumn, and in no less a personage than the King of Siam himself, who, according to the Siam Free Press, has definitely arranged to visit England in June next to be present at the celebration of Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee. His Majesty will travel by a Siamese vessel. The program so far arranged is as follows: The Mahachakri leaves Bangkok about the first week in April and proceeds direct to Genoa, where the yacht will be left to follow, and the royal party will proceed by train. Halts will be made in Italy, Switzerland and England, where the King will remain during the celebrations in June. From England the royal party will proceed by the Mahachakri to Sweden, Denmark, and St. Petersburg, where another long stay will be made. His Majesty deems it right and proper that as the present Czar has visited Siam the compliment should be returned by a Siamese visit to Russia. It is surmised the King may possibly come back about next September, when an effort will be made to induce His Majesty to travel via the United States, the Mahachakri meeting the returning party at Hongkong or one of the Japan ports.

HEAVY RAINS REPORTED.

But Hawaii and Kauai Are the Only Islands Favored.

The Kinau brings news of very heavy rains in Hamakua and Olaa districts on Hawaii. At Olaa it rained so hard for three days that work on the coffee plantations was almost impossible.

Senator Northrup, who is in the city from Kohala, says that district has also been visited by a plentiful downpour. Everything is looking prosperous in Kohala, so Mr. Northrup reports, and the yield of sugar from the mills now grinding is exceeding expectations and will be ahead of anything yet turned out. Since the rains the growing cane looks splendid.

Reports from Olaa say that the coffee trees everywhere are doing finely, but that some damage to vegetable gardens and coffee nurseries is being caused by cutworms. There is a general demand in the district for something to eradicate them.

Kauai has been well saturated with rain during the past week, but for some reason Jupiter Pluvius has forgotten that Oahu and Maui are sadly in need of a good wetting.

SUPPLIES OF MISS KATE MCGREW AND DR. COOPER.

Reception to be Held Afterward at the Home of the Bride's Parents—The Bridal Tour.

At 8 o'clock this evening at St. Andrew's cathedral, which has been prettily decorated for the occasion, Rev. Alexander Mackintosh will perform the ceremony which will make Dr. Charles B. Cooper and Miss Kate McGrew man and wife. The popularity of both contracting parties will insure a very large attendance of friends both during the ceremony and at the reception which will be held at the McGrew residence afterward.

The bride will be attended by Miss Gay as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Widdifield, Miss Damon, Miss Halstead and Miss Pauahi Judd. Dr. Raymond will officiate as best man for the groom, and Dr. Murray, Major J. W. Jones, Major G. C. Potter and Marshal Brown will be the ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple will be driven to the residence of the bride's parents, where they will hold a reception. The first week of the honeymoon will be spent at a quiet retreat near town, the exact location of which the BULLETIN is asked not to divulge. On April 1 Dr. Cooper and his bride will leave by the Monowai for a three months visit to the States, most of which will be spent in the city of New York, where the doctor will put in much of his time in visiting the hospitals and picking up the latest ideas in medicine and surgery for subsequent use here.

The young people, both of whom are extremely popular in Honolulu society, will receive many costly and beautiful tokens of good will and affection from their many friends in this city and elsewhere.

HAWAIIAN NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Projected Organization Announced in a Hilo Paper.

"S. L. Varedaal" is the signature of a letter from Honolulu in the Hilo Tribune, proposing a convention in this city to form the Hawaiian National League. The object of the promoters, whoever they are, "is to sustain the Republic of Hawaii," and their doctrines are stated as below:

"They are opposed to annexation to any country. They favor abrogation of any treaty which may threaten civilization, or give to one race supremacy. They believe that we should all be Hawaiians under one flag, and discourage a display of favoritism to any other country unless by treaty of equal advantage.

"They believe the monarchy to be forever dead, and will protest, by force if necessary, against any attempt to reestablish it. They believe that the Monroe doctrine will protect the Republic against any outside interference. They believe in educational qualification franchise. They have faith in the present Administration and pledge themselves to support the Constitution of the Republic."

A VOICE FROM THE BLEACHERS.

Local interest in the cricket games as reflected from the "bleachers" is increasing. During Saturday's games the "bleachers" were particularly vociferous and kept the players under a running fire of good natured banter. One small boy brought down the crowd by advising the batsman to "go buy a case of Rainier Beer and get some life in you." The crowd applauded the remark, knowing that Rainier Beer is celebrated for its invigorating and strength-giving propensities. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.
